

BOARD MEMBER AUTHORITY

As referred to in state law, school board members have the authority to act for the School District only at such times as the School Board is in session; or, when the school board has assigned specific duties and responsibilities to a board member of a board committee.

In other instances, an individual board member, including the chairman, has power when the Board, by voted, has delegated authority to him or her.